RESIDENT MEAL PLANS
For students living on the residence halls.

Standard Plan | 2000 points per academic year (1250 per semester)
• Includes meals and board rate
• Ideal for light-eaters and students that spend most weekends at home
• 7-12 meals per week
Premium Gold Plan | 2300 points per academic year (1500 per semester)
• An additional $350 ($217 per semester)
• For students eating most meals near campus
• 12-16 meals per week
Ultimate Access Plan | All-You-Can-Visit access to the residence dining halls, with additional points for meal purchases:
• 2500 points per academic year (1500 per semester)
• An additional $700 ($433 per semester)
• Up to 15 meals a day near campus, plus snacks
• 18 meals per week

For full details, see the Dining Services website.

NON-RESIDENT MEAL PLANS
For students living off campus or in university undergraduate apartments

GOLD PLAN
1000 points per academic year (83.3 points per meal)
• 1 meal per day (or 40 meals per semester)
• Additional points can be added at any time in $50 increments, $50 + 55 points.
• Meals include all-you-can-eat options, all-you-can-visit and ala carte meals.

PLATINUM PLAN
2000 points per academic year (166.6 points per meal)
• 1 meal per day (or 80 meals per semester)
• Additional points can be added at any time in $50 increments, $50 + 55 points.
• Meals include all-you-can-eat options, all-you-can-visit and ala carte meals.

For full details, see the Dining Services website.

HOW THE MEAL PLANS WORK
1. Half of your total meal plan points are added to your Cal 1 Card at the beginning of each semester.
2. Use your points at any Cal Dining locations:
   • 120 “call-yourself-to-booth” meals at residence dining commons:
     Crossroads, Cafe 3, Fishbowl, and Cork Kerr
   • Residential dining locations:
     The Den, Bear Stacker, Club Market, and CalCub.
   • 5 on-campus retail locations:
     Golden Bean, Cafe & Produce Stand, Pete Brown’s, Harmony, Terrace Cafe, Common Grounds, Qualicum CyberCafe, and The Pub Shop @ BSE.
   • Plus, access to The Stüssy and California Memorial Stadium.
3. No daily minimum or maximum points usage.
4. Roll over up to 100 points from Fall to Spring.
5. Add more points at any time: $10 = 55 points.
6. Ultimate Access meal plan holders have access to three “all-you-can-eat” meals per day at any dining common in addition to their point allowance.

HIGHLIGHTS
• Unlimited guest meals
• All-you-can-visit meals for guests on meal plans
• All-you-can-eat meals and late-night dining
• Use meal plans with Cal Athletics
• All-you-can-visit meals for other athletes; enhance acceptance meal plans, or when Concessions stores.
• Easy online account management; add more points, check balance, and transactions.

GRADUATE STUDENT MEAL PLANS
Get reduced entry price to the dining commons
We are pleased to offer a meal plan specifically designed for our graduate student customers.

• 200 points per academic year for $200.
• 1 meal per day plus additional meals at any time.
• Additional points can be added at any time in $50 increments, $50 + 55 points.

For more information, please visit caldining.berkeley.edu.

FACULTY & STAFF PLANS
Cal Dining is proud to offer Faculty & Staff meal plans, which can be used in any of our 16 campus locations and produce stands, including our Meet & Greet & Coffee & Tea locations: The Den, Pete Brown’s and Qualicum CyberCafe.

Purchase points in $55 increments, $50 + 55 pts. Your meal plans are automatically loaded on your Cal 1 Card (your campus ID card). To sign up, visit caldining.berkeley.edu and log-in to purchase points.

SPECIAL DIETARY NEEDS
Cal Dining offers resources for students who have specific food allergies, religious dietary restrictions or special medical need for food choice. Our Registered Dietitian and Executive Chef work with students who have food allergies or specific food restrictions, ensuring that they get the most from their dining experience at Cal. At all Cal Dining locations, there are daily selections for both vegetarians (no meat or fish) and vegans (no animal products of any kind, including meat, eggs, and dairy), as well as gluten-free diets. Students with food allergies or special dietary needs are encouraged to meet with us for a nut-free counseling session.

HALAL AT CAL?
We offer student halal options in all four of our dining commons.

KOSHER AT CAL?
We offer kosher Shabbat meals (Friday dinner and Saturday lunch) at the Chabad Jewish Student Center.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT MEAL PLANS, SPECIAL DIETARY NEEDS, OR TO MEET WITH OUR REGISTERED DIETITIAN:

Caldining.berkeley.edu/dining berkeley.berkeley.edu

LOCAL, ORGANIC & SUSTAINABLE
Cal Dining is leading the way when it comes to sustainable business practices. The National Food-Food Campus Commitment asks for a commitment of 20% of all food purchases to be local by 2020. Cal Dining is already at 57%! View our sustainable partners here:

Caldining.berkeley.edu/sustainability

Visit Cal Dining’s local produce stand at the Goldie’s Market Monday — Friday noon — 8 pm

Residents and Student Services Programs, University of California Berkeley, photo credit: Cinemar Vivas, Buns & a Little Hunger, All rights reserved 2015. Visit caldining.berkeley.edu